Are you a Graduate looking to get into Consultancy, or perhaps a more experienced Consultant looking for a fresh challenge?

Hunter Acoustics is a leading acoustic consultancy practice based in Cardiff, with an opportunity at graduate or Consultant level. Company philosophy is to provide a positive and flexible working environment, giving employees the opportunity to expand their experience and maximize their potential.

Over the past 16 years, we have undertaken major projects across the UK covering planning, industrial, environmental, studio and building acoustics. For more details of our scope of work and recent projects, visit the Company website; www.hunteracoustics.co.uk.

The company is a member of the Association of Noise Consultants. All members of staff are members or associate members of the Institute of Acoustics and follow a professional development scheme in order to broaden knowledge and skills

We are looking for motivated computer literate Candidates with a relevant degree/diploma, and a driving license currently valid in the UK. A competitive salary with profit related bonus will be offered to successful applicants, depending on experience and qualifications. If you are interested in joining a fast developing company, where your input can make a difference, please write/e-mail including CV to David Hunter - address/email below.
