

Anderson Acoustics

Senior/Principal Consultant: Education Sector

Are you an experienced acoustic consultant looking to make a difference in the education sector?

Join our dynamic team and work with our education sector lead on our growing portfolio. You'll manage and deliver education and related projects like theatres and community buildings.

You'll be part of a motivated team, building on existing client relationships, and forging new ones.

Work flexibly from our London/Brighton offices.

What we're looking for

Experience: Demonstrated leadership qualities and experience working on DfE projects.

Purpose: An interest in universal acoustic design, to improve outcomes for all.

Self-Motivation: A great communicator who is ready to take on new challenges.

Why you'll love working with us

Innovative Projects: Be at the forefront of school design in the UK, to create a better sounding future.

100% Employee-Owned: As an EO company, we directly benefit from our success, making us more committed, innovative, and transparent. We believe a happy, autonomous, and self-motivated team of co-owners delivers the highest level of service quality and client value.

Professional Growth: Learn from and be mentored by an established expert leading the field, taking a fresh approach to acoustic design in schools.

Great Benefits: Competitive salary based on experience, company pension, private healthcare, and employee ownership profit share.

Anderson Acoustics is a consultancy providing acoustics, air quality and community engagement services to our clients. Ready to join us? Contact Emma Greenland hello@andersonacoustics.co.uk to apply. Please send a CV and covering statement.
