

Do you want to work on Europe's most exciting infrastructure project?

Enthusiastic about managing noise and vibration on projects of national significance?

We have the job opportunity you've been waiting for...

ROLE PURPOSE	To provide support to ALIGN JV Environment Team. Including but not limited to the following activities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Reviewing NVAQ monitoring data, assisting with the investigation of exceedances and complaints and developing innovative solutions to onsite noise control.</li> <li>• Assisting the team with the production of CoPA Section 61 consent documentation.</li> <li>• Developing NVAQ management processes, innovations for construction NVAQ management and contributing to management plans.</li> </ul>
INTERFACES	Internal: Noise, Vibration and Air Quality Manager, Head of Environment, wider environmental team and construction teams. External: Statutory consultees, HS2 Environmental Team, Consultants, Subcontractors
ACCOUNTABILITIES	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Provides assistance reviewing NVAQ reports, assessments and calculations.</li> <li>• Work with construction teams to assess and mitigate noise at site and at receptors.</li> <li>• Supports NVAQ manager in delivering the project NVAQ commitments.</li> </ul>
PERSONAL QUALITIES AND EXPERIENCE	The following qualities/ experience are desirable: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Member of the Institute of Acoustics (IOA). (desirable but not essential)</li> <li>• Experience of construction site noise monitoring and reporting.</li> <li>• Experience of managing noise risks and their impacts in terms of time costs and reputation.</li> <li>• Understanding of the benefits of working collaboratively to obtain the best outcome for the project</li> <li>• Good interpersonal and communication skills.</li> <li>• Determination to see tasks through to completion, with excellent planning and organisation skills.</li> </ul>

Interested?

Please apply on our website:
<https://alignjv.com/current-jobs>

